Haley, I wanted to talk with you about the media advisory and clear up any confusion that might have been created. The plan is still for the our Acting Regional Administrator to acknowledge each of you attending representing Members. I know you will be attending from Senator Sanders' office, John Tracy will be attending from Senator Leahy's office, and Aaron Rosenbluth will be attending from Congressman Welch's office. Unless one of you has a strong desire to offer comments, preparation of remarks are not necessary. I have talked with Tom and George to clarify the advisory. I am not sure why the names of all of you attending was not picked up; I am sorry. The other offices were fine with acknowledging staff representing Members. If you are comfortable with this, that is how we will plan to proceed. Let me know. Thanks.
